

Presenting Brother Outsider: The Life of Bayard Rustin

If we desire a society without discrimination, then we must not discriminate against anyone in the process of building this society. If we desire a society that is democratic, then democracy must become a means as well as an end.

Brother Outsider: The Life of Bayard Rustin is a documentary chronicling Bayard Rustin's life, a tale of race, prejudice, and idealism. Rustin's commitment to pacifism/Gandhian nonviolence helped to shape civil rights movement strategy. Rustin, a longtime advisor to Martin Luther King Jr., helped organize the historic 1963 March on Washington, the biggest protest America had ever witnessed.

Co-sponsored by the Monterey Peace and Justice Center, the Monterey Peninsula Friends Meeting (Quakers) and the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom Monterey County Branch
