On Sept 28, at 2pm, join artist Belle Yang for an exclusive afternoon in the gallery of Imagining China: The Art of Belle Yang and Joseph Yang . Immerse yourself in the exhibition as she highlights select paintings, provides insight into her art and writing, and explores her creative relationship with her father, Joseph Yang.

Born in Taiwan, Belle Yang is author and illustrator of adult nonfiction books, children's books and a graphic memoir. She spent part of her childhood in Japan. At age seven she emigrated to the United States with her mother and father. She attended Stirling University in Scotland, graduated from the University of California, Santa Cruz in biology but went on to study art at Pasadena Art Center College of Design and the Beijing Institute of Traditional Chinese Painting.

The event will take place at the Monterey Museum of Art, 559 Pacific Street, Monterey.

On Sept 28, from 7-9pm, Palenke Arts (1713 Broadway Ave., Seaside) will present Flaco El Jandro y los Perros Callejeros, an evening of Rockmánticas y Cumbiapunk.

Flaco El Jandro is a songwriter/musician from Salinas, CA. The concept behind the project has always been to continue the evolution and trajectory of Chicano music, blending traditional songwriting with modern instrumentation and energy, through the medium of a variety of different genres and rhythms. In 2020 he released his self-produced debut EP Canciones Para Curar la Depresión.

October 1

On Tues., Oct., 1, from 7-9pm, please join Whites for Racial Equity for a free showing of the film Rustin at the Unitarian Church of the Monterrey Peninsula, 490 Aguajito Rd., Carmel.

It is the powerful true story of Bayard Rustin, the openly gay Black Civil Rights leader who dedicated his life to a quest for racial equality.

Colman Domingo plays the driving force behind the 1963 March on Washington in a new film from DGA Award and three-time Tony Award-winning director George C. Wolfe (Ma Rainey's Black Bottom). The performance marks the Emmy winner's first leading role in a feature film.

OLMECA

Latinx Futures:
An Exploration Into the Depths of Latinx Identity and Power

Virtual Event Oct. 2 @ 1pm PT/4pm ET

RSVP

On Oct 2, beginning at 1pm, join Olmeca, for an exploration of the multifaceted and evolving concept of Latinx identity and its significance in the U.S., representing nearly 20% of the population. Through a mix of storytelling, poetry, music, and research, Olmeca delves into the historical, social, and political forces shaping Latinx experiences. He will examine the intersection of race, ethnicity, gender, and class, and discuss how tapping into ancestral knowledge and confronting colonial systems can ignite social and racial justice. Don't miss this inspiring and transformative conversation on Latinx futures. Perfect for campuses, organizations, and self-learners.
