

Whites for Racial Equity

The human heart is the first home of democracy. It is where we embrace our questions. Can we be equitable? Can we be generous? Can we listen with our whole beings, not just our minds, and offer our attention rather than our opinions? And do we have enough resolve in our hearts to act courageously, relentlessly, without giving up-ever-trusting our fellow citizens to join with us in our determined pursuit of a living democracy?
- Terry Tempest Williams

Please join Whites for Racial Equity on Saturday, March 15, from 10-1pm as we look at immigration and social justice through the lens of Five Habits of the Heart, a program from the Center for Courage and Renewal.

While the forces of exhaustion, loneliness, violence, and injustice are real and undeniable, so are the powers of human authenticity, generosity, courage, and community that rise up to meet them. We are most effective when we nurture deep integrity and relational trust - building the foundation for a more loving, equitable, and healthy world.

This free workshop will take place at the Unitarian Universalist Church of the Monterey Peninsula, 490 Aguajito Rd., Carmel.

"I got this one for leather work, this one for canoing and this one for promising to dedicate my whole life to crushing the rich white patriarchy out of existence for making life so miserable for me and all my black and brown and queer sisters all around the world."
